

I am informed that the transmission of broadband signals over power lines will result in severe interference to amateur radio reception. Please be careful to insure that this does not occur. The amateur radio service is an important part of emergency communications in the United States and should not be endangered.